IN-SERVICE TRAINING RULES AND REGULATIONS

CLASS STARTING TIME

All classes will begin at 8:30 a.m. and end at 3:30 p.m. unless otherwise noted. In-service classes are held at the Regional Emergency Training Center (RETC) unless otherwise noted. Classroom assignments will be posted in the lobby.

REGISTRATION

Pre-registration is required. Complete the on-line registration form a minimum of one week in advance of the start of the course. Register early to assure a seat in the desired course. All registrations must be approved by the requesting agency's Chief or Designee. "You must be a Law Enforcement Officer, Firemen, or EMS member to register for our classes". An automated response will be e-mailed to the student at the student's address provided on the registration form. The automated response is not a registration confirmation. It is simply an alert to the student that a registration request has been submitted in his/her name.

COURSE CONFIRMATION / CANCELLATION

Registration Confirmation will be e-mailed to the requesting agency's training coordinator (Chief or Designee on file with the Academy). It is the responsibility of the requesting agency's training coordinator to notify the student(s) that the course registration has been confirmed.

Courses that do not have the minimum number of attendees registered will be cancelled and those agencies will be notified of the course cancellation by e-mail.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Class attendance is mandatory for certificate consideration. Any absences will be reported to the sending agency. If an absence is unavoidable, please notify the Academy. All attendees are required to sign-in on the class roster.

CERTIFICATES

Certificates of completion will be awarded at the end of the last day of classes.

TUITION / PAYMENT

Training fees are waived for Camden County Agencies unless otherwise noted. All checks, money orders or purchase orders should be made payable to Camden County College Police Academy. Cash payments cannot be accepted.

Co-sponsored Courses listed in this catalog require registration with the vendor. Payments should also be made to the vendor.

REFUND POLICY

No refunds will be issued due to failure to attend the class. Refunds may be authorized based on written justification from the agency 24 hours prior to the start of class.

DRESS CODE

Department uniform or Business Casual is the appropriate attire for the Academy setting and is required at all times unless otherwise noted in the Course Description. Sweats, shorts, tee-shirts, jeans and sneakers are prohibited.

SMOKING

The use of tobacco products is strictly prohibited on all the campuses of Camden County College.

FIREARMS

Unless dressed in department uniform, law enforcement officers are asked to conceal their weapons, especially when walking across campus.

TELEPHONE

With the exception of an emergency, no class will be interrupted for telephone messages. Academy telephones are restricted to the use of the Academy staff and instructors. Please place all cell phones on silent mode prior to entering the classroom.

CLEANLINESS

Eating or drinking in the classrooms is strictly prohibited.

ORDER

In-service students are expected to set an example for the Basic Recruits by refraining from using profane, loud or offensive language. All students are expected to treat instructors with courtesy and respect. Interaction with recruits is prohibited unless prior permission has been granted by the Academy Staff.

Document Fraud for Law Enforcement

Course # CE.POL-065-01 (62545)

This one (1) day course will assist law enforcement (Patrol Officers as well as Detectives) with training that will enhance their ability to recognize and identify the universe of identity-related documents issued by and relied upon by the MVC and the factors that motivate fraudsters. With emerging technology it has become increasingly difficult to identify fraudulent documents. Students will learn what tools are available to assist them in identifying counterfeit documents by providing “hands on” training and experience in the recognition of fraud as it pertains to documents such as: driver licenses, green cards, passports, birth certificates and social security cards. Participants will learn the newest trends in counterfeiting of drivers licenses by “on-line” manufacturers, which has becoming increasingly common due to the ease in obtaining access to technologies. This course will also review counterfeit as well as genuine NJ inspection stickers, temporary registrations and certificates of title. In addition, this class will review facial recognition technology as it is used by the Motor Vehicle Commission on all images captured as well as the process that is used with the submission of a photo for a “manual upload”.

Course # CE. POL-008-01 (64326)

This one (1) day course is designed to emphasize the critical importance of the need for police officers to change their mindset toward report writing. Two approaches to effective writing are examined in this course. The first and most important component is WHY, and the second is HOW. This is not a remedial English Composition class because we recognize that you are a professional police officer. The goal of the class is for you to utilize the training and education that you already have had, refine your approach to what has been perceived as a mundane task, develop new skills toward gathering information, and begin writing reports that allow the reader to see what you, the writer, has seen in a coherent, sequential, accurate and complete way.

UNDERSTANDING AND SURVIVING CRITICAL INCIDENTS/ STRESS MANAGEMENT Course# CE.POL-021-01 (64353)

This two (2) day course is designed to identify critical incident criteria, address factors which contribute to surviving critical incidents and gain understanding of post-traumatic stress disorders. It will also prepare police personnel to survive traumatic events by developing a winning attitude that will guide them through a crisis. Many officers are killed or seriously injured each year and there is often no way the tragedy could have been avoided. In a crisis, victims focus on their vulnerability and survivors focus on their ability to respond. Since behavior in a crisis can never be predicted with certainty, it is imperative that police officers be educated and trained as to how to adopt a surviving attitude so that they can win even against incredible odds.
